

DON Specification

DPM is intended to be complemented by DON—the repository interaction component—which facilitates interaction with remote package repositories. DON stands for DPM over Network.

While it's generally assumed, and the primary use case is, remote repository interaction, DON can also interact with local package repositories as well.